Chapter Summary

In the chapter book Amelia Bedelia Goes Wild, our beloved heroine embarks on a hilarious adventure in the great outdoors. When Amelia Bedelia is invited to join her friends on a camping trip in the wilderness, she eagerly accepts, despite her lack of experience in the wild.

As the group sets out into the forest, Amelia Bedelia's innocent misinterpretations of common phrases and idioms lead to a series of comical misadventures. She "puts up her tent" by hanging it from a tree branch, "feeds the bears" by leaving out a picnic basket, and "looks for a waterfall" by peering down a rainstorm-swollen stream.

Despite her mishaps, Amelia Bedelia's positive attitude and unwavering enthusiasm win over both her friends and the animals they encounter in the wild. She befriends a curious bear cub, a wise old owl, and a mischievous raccoon, who all help her navigate the challenges of the wilderness.
