Batpig is a fictional character, a pig who dresses up as a superhero. He first appeared in the 1967 comic book Super Goof #1. Batpig is a member of the Legion of Super-Pets, a group of animal superheroes who fight crime alongside the Legion of Super-Heroes.

Batpig is a skilled fighter and acrobat, and he is also able to fly using a jetpack. He is a loyal and brave hero, and he is always willing to put himself in danger to protect others.

Batpig has appeared in numerous comic books, television shows, and movies. He has also been featured in a variety of merchandise, including toys, clothing, and video games.

Origins

Batpig was created by writer E. Nelson Bridwell and artist Curt Swan. The character was inspired by the popularity of the Batman television series, which was airing at the time.

Batpig's first appearance in Super Goof #1 was a minor one. He was simply one of a group of animals who were being used as test subjects by the villainous Lex Luthor.

However, Batpig's popularity quickly grew. He was given his own feature in Super Goof #2, and he soon became a regular member of the Legion of Super-Pets.

Powers

Batpig possesses a variety of superpowers, including:

- Super strength: Batpig is able to lift heavy objects and perform other feats of strength.
- Super durability: Batpig's skin is resistant to bullets and other forms of attack.
- Super speed: Batpig can run and fly at incredible speeds.
- Flight: Batpig is able to fly using a jetpack.
- Acrobatics: Batpig is a skilled acrobat and is able to perform complex maneuvers.

Adventures

Batpig has had many adventures over the years. He has fought crime alongside the Legion of Super-Pets, and he has also teamed up with other superheroes, such as Superman and Batman.

Some of Batpig's most notable adventures include:

- Batpig's first adventure was in Super Goof #1, where he helped the Legion of Super-Pets defeat Lex Luthor.
- Batpig played a major role in the "Crisis on Infinite Earths" storyline, where he helped to save the multiverse from the Anti-Monitor.
- Batpig was a member of the team that defeated the villainous Darkseid in the "Final Crisis" storyline.
