- Embouchure: The way you position your lips on the mouthpiece is crucial for producing a clear, resonant sound. Place your lower lip over the reed and gently blow until you hear a stable note.
- Tonguing: Articulate notes by lightly touching the tip of your tongue to the reed to create a clear start and stop.
- Fingering: Cover the appropriate holes on the clarinet with your fingers to produce different notes. Refer to a fingering chart for guidance.
