Love At Work Ruthie Godfrey is a contemporary romance novel that explores the complexities of workplace relationships. The novel follows the story of Ruthie Godfrey, a young woman who falls in love with her boss, Jake. The novel is full of steamy romance, office drama, and plenty of laugh-out-loud moments.

The Story

Ruthie Godfrey is a young woman who has just started her new job at a publishing company. She's excited to start her new career and is eager to prove herself. However, she soon finds herself falling for her boss, Jake. Jake is handsome, charming, and successful, and Ruthie can't help but be drawn to him. However, she knows that a relationship between them would be inappropriate. After all, Jake is her boss.

Despite her reservations, Ruthie and Jake begin a secret relationship. At first, it's just a casual fling, but soon they find themselves falling in love. However, their relationship is not without its challenges. They have to keep their relationship a secret from their colleagues, and they have to deal with the disapproval of Jake's ex-wife. But despite the challenges, Ruthie and Jake are determined to make their relationship work.

The Characters

Ruthie Godfrey is a strong and independent woman. She's not afraid to go after what she wants, and she's not willing to let anyone stand in her way. She's also kind and compassionate, and she's always willing to help others. Jake is a handsome and charming man. He's successful in his career, and he's always the life of the party. However, he's also divorced, and he has a reputation for being a player. Despite his reputation, Jake is actually a good guy. He's kind and caring, and he's always willing to put others before himself.

The Romance

The romance between Ruthie and Jake is passionate and intense. They're both crazy about each other, and they can't keep their hands off each other. However, their relationship is also full of drama. They have to keep their relationship a secret, and they have to deal with the disapproval of Jake's ex-wife. But despite the challenges, Ruthie and Jake are determined to make their relationship work.

The Office Drama

In addition to the romance, Love At Work Ruthie Godfrey is also full of office drama. Ruthie and Jake have to keep their relationship a secret from their colleagues, and they have to deal with the jealousy of Jake's ex-wife. There's also the added complication of Jake's best friend, who is also in love with Ruthie. All of this drama makes for a fun and exciting read.

The Laugh-Out-Loud Moments
